Omer Angel (University of British Columbia, Canada)

Signed sorting networks.

ABSTRACT: I will describe some recent results and several conjectures concerning typical maximal words in the group of signed permutations, called signed sorting networks. These mirror similar results and conjectures,concerning sorting networks, and suggest that these models are in a common universality class.